Time: 5:30 to 9:30 pm
Location: The Brink Lounge, Madison WI
Partnership Levels: Da Vinci Lead Partner - $5,000
 See page 2 for details) Madame Curie Banquet Partner - $2,500
 Einstein Table Partner - $1,000
 Individual Tickets - $125

The Brainiac Bowl is a lively science, history, culture and pop trivia contest in which teams match wits against each other and raise funds for environmental education programs for students of all ages at the Aldo Leopold Nature Center.

This event is a unique and cool way to reward hard working employees—and yourself—while engaging in valuable leadership and team building skills. Last year’s participants described it as a crazy, fun way to break up the winter doldrums, enjoy some quality professional networking and let off some steam.

We hope you will join us for this extraordinary evening of high-spirited fun, featuring:

- A delicious dinner and decadent dessert catered by Cento!
- One beer ticket per participant and cash bar!
- Raffle with fantastic prize packages!
- Spirited trivia challenge for the Brainiac Bowl Championship!
- A Crazy Costume contest with cool prizes!
- Chance for bragging rights as the winner of the “Prove You’re A Brain” and Butts & Brains contests!
- Opportunity to network and match wits against Madison’s smart movers and shakers—and your garden variety Einsteins!
- Photo op with your team and our wild and wacky emcee, Steve Goldberg!

Get into the spirit of the evening by wearing wacky individual or team costumes to compete in the Crazy Costume contest. Emcee Steve Goldberg will deliver a memorable and mind-blowing experience that is not to be missed and we guarantee everyone will have a blast!

Form a team of eight of your family, friends or colleagues. Don’t have a team? We’ll match you up with like-minded folks for an unforgettable night of friendly competitive revelry.
