Non-Profit Marketing & Communications Internship

The Aldo Leopold Nature Center (ALNC), a non-profit organization established in 1994, provides environmental education programs to engage and educate current and future generations, empowering them to respect, protect and enjoy the natural world. Guided by Aldo Leopold’s land ethic, our vision is that; Engaged, educated and empowered people take action to protect the natural world and create healthy & sustainable communities.

Help ALNC promote the importance of environmental education by joining our team as a Marketing & Communications Intern! Located in Monona, ALNC has an outdoor teaching campus of more than 100 acres including prairie, woodland and wetland trails—providing tens of thousands of children, their parents and teachers, and walk-in visitors each year with hands-on outdoor environmental programs, team building exercises, public programs and more. Primary programs include hosting school field trips; summer camp programs; family, homeschool and scout programs; special events; general public visits; and after-school programs.

A Non-Profit Communications Internship is available at ALNC, reporting to the Marketing & Communications Manager and assisting both the Education and Development teams. The Communications Intern will be responsible for promoting Aldo Leopold Nature Center programs and events, curating content on ALNC’s social media platforms, maintaining website content, producing marketing material, maintaining community relationships through promotional partnerships and other projects as Intern’s interests and ALNC’s needs align.

ALNC is an equal opportunity employer committed to building and serving a diverse staff and community, and qualified applicants of under-represented backgrounds and identities are encouraged to apply.

The internship will require approximately 10-15 hours a week. Hours, start and end dates are negotiable. Some night and weekend outreach flexibility is required.

Opportunities & Responsibilities Include
- Social Media & Newsletter Communications – assist with writing and posting content, updating and maintaining ALNC web presence and promotions, building online visibility
- Event Coordination – serve as onsite liaison to assist with volunteer and event coordination before, during and after events as needed, assist with event promotion & follow-up
- Community Outreach – promote ALNC and our mission by tabling at expos, conferences, family events, and community festivals
- Public Relations & Promotional Material Development - draft press releases, article pitches and PSAs, assist with creating and distributing program flyers, on-site event signage, displays and hand-outs

Skills & Characteristics of a Qualified Candidate
- Excellent oral and written communications skills with the ability to write in friendly, approachable styles
- Interest in non-profit development, sustainability and environmental education
- Basic to intermediate understanding of social media best practices
- Basic understanding of various computer and web platforms and a willingness to learn new ones
- A positive attitude, strong organizational skills, commitment, flexibility, reliability and attention to detail

Bonus Skills, but not Required
- Experience working with the Adobe Creative Suite (Illustrator, Photoshop & InDesign)
- Event experience and knowledge of best practices in event production
- Experience writing for publications

Compensation
Play an important role in a nationally recognized, innovative organization; gain valuable professional experience working with a non-profit; gain knowledge and increase development skills; and earn a great reference. College credit is possible.

Transportation
Vehicle needed; the nearest bus stop is about 3/4 mile from ALNC. ALNC is accessible by bike.

To Apply
Submit a cover letter, resume and three references to:
Cara Erickson, Marketing & Communications Manager
cara@aldoleopoldnaturecenter.org